The Eagan Police Department K-9s have proven to be vital assets to the police department which helps to promote public safety in our community. They have assisted officers with finding criminals, locating evidence and have been showcased in countless community events. In the coming years, the K-9s will reach the end of their career at which time there will be a need for replacements. Therefore, the proceeds from the 2019 Golf Tournament and Silent Auction will go towards the purchase and training of future Eagan Police Department K-9s.

Please mail registration forms no later than August 14, 2019 to:
